PERMISSION TO TRAIN IN PARTNERSHIP 2017/18 - NOTES

³ When two persons are training in partnership under the Rules of Racing there is an association between them whereby they take equal responsibility for the training of horses under the Rules. The term “partnership” does not describe the business relationship between those two persons. The two persons must train horses on behalf of a business entity (the supplier) set up for that purpose.

SECTION B

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF LICENCE, PERMIT OR APPROVAL

1. "Trainer 1" and "Trainer 2" as detailed in section A ("the Applicants"), acknowledge and agree to be subject to and be bound by:
 - (a) the Rules of Racing of Thoroughbred Racing SA Limited ("TRSA") as amended or varied by TRSA from time to time; and
 - (b) such Rules and directions as may from time to time be formed, made or given by the Board of TRSA ("Board"), the Stewards of TRSA ("Stewards") or the officials of any racing club registered by TRSA to conduct thoroughbred racing under the Rules ("Club").
2. This permit shall be governed by the laws of the State of South Australia and the parties agree to submit to the jurisdiction of the courts operating in the State of South Australia.

SECTION C

COLLECTION STATEMENT

TRSA is the body responsible for and carries out the functions of:

- determining and issuing occupational licences authorising persons to participate in the South Australian Thoroughbred Racing Industry ("Licensed Persons"); and
- supervising Licensed Persons.

PRIVACY

This Statement is provided under the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth)

In the course of performing its functions, TRSA will seek personal and financial information about each of you from you and others for the purposes of:

- making determinations in relation to your partnership application, renewal or continuance;
- meeting its supervisory responsibilities in relation to you as a Licensed Person; and
- promoting or protecting the integrity or reputation of the thoroughbred racing code.

TRSA may disclose your personal and financial information to enforcement bodies, State Government licensing authorities, other racing control bodies in the States and Territories of Australia and to other persons for any of the purposes described above. TRSA may also obtain information about you from such authorities, bodies or persons.

Unless otherwise advised by you, your name and contact details will be published monthly in Trackside, a publication produced by TRSA, and on TRSA's website.

You may make a request to TRSA to gain access to information held by TRSA in relation to you by writing to the Chairman of Stewards, Thoroughbred Racing SA Limited, GPO Box 2646, Adelaide SA 5001.

Should you decline to provide personal and financial information to TRSA when requested by TRSA as part of its licensing and supervisory activities, TRSA may refuse to grant or renew such a licence or may revoke or suspend your licence.

SECTION D

REQUIREMENT FOR LEGAL ADVICE

Prior to being granted permission to train in partnership, both training partners are required to seek legal advice as to the effect of the provisions of ARR.80G and LR.20.14, particularly in regard to punishment under the Rules of Racing (as per attached). In general, the following points should be noted:-

- Both trainers in a partnership are equally responsible under the Rules for the training of all race-horses trained in the partnership.
- Where a breach of the Rules has been committed by one trainer and not the other (for example accidental or negligent administration by one trainer of a prohibited substance), both trainers are automatically deemed responsible and may be punished as though they had both committed the breach.
- When a breach of the Rules has occurred interstate, then both trainers are also automatically deemed responsible for the purposes of adoption of the penalty in South Australia.
- The only circumstances when both trainers are not automatically responsible for a breach of the Rules is where the breach of the Rules does not relate to training (for instance, misconduct involving assault), or where the breach involves a dishonest, corrupt, fraudulent, improper or dishonourable action or practice.

The above points are general, plain-English statements about the effect of ARR.80G and LR.20.14 and are not intended to replace your own legal advice. Your application will not be considered where the declarations on page 6 have not been signed by both trainers.

DECLARATION OF TRAINERS

For the purpose of my application to train in partnership, I acknowledge the general effect of ARR.80G and LR.20.14 with regard to punishment under the Rules of Racing as summarised above. I have sought legal advice in relation to this matter and have had the effect of ARR.80G and LR.20.14 explained to me by that lawyer.
